Twenty-eight crews competed in the second edition of Charity Regatta PHN-GDYNIA VIP RACING 2017, which took place in the Bay of Gdańsk over the last weekend. The crews donated a total of PLN 168,000 to the “Bursztynowa Przystań” Children’s Hospice in Gdynia. The second edition of Charity Regatta PHN-GDYNIA VIP RACING 2017 began on Friday, July 7 with an official welcome ceremony for the crews, followed by a group and boat draw conducted by Tomasz Chamera, Chairman of the Polish Yachting Association. The 28 crews were divided into four qualifying groups. The next item on the agenda was a meeting with PHN-GDYNIA VIP RACING 2017 special guest: Zbigniew Gutkowski – the first Pole ever to take part in the round-the-world races VELUX 5 Oceans Race and Vendée Globe.
